Who Attends The AAPath Annual Meetings?

The AAPath Annual Meeting exclusively convenes pathology decision makers in academic practice, undergraduate and graduate medical education, and research. Network with over 400 Academic Pathology leaders in an intimate setting for exchanging ideas and information on current and cutting-edge topics and technology in Practice Management, Medical Education, and Research.

Attendees include:

- Pathology and Laboratory Medicine Department Chairs, Vice Chairs, and past Chairs (Senior Fellows)
- Pathology Residency Program Directors (PRODS) and Associate Directors
- Academic Pathology Department Executives (APEX) and Finance Managers
- Medical School Pathology Educators and Course Directors (UMEDS)
- Program Coordinators for Pathology Residency and Subspecialty Fellowship Programs (GMEAS)
- Other faculty and staff, and executive leadership of pathology organizations, such as the ABPath, ASCP, and CAP also attend. Attendees meet concurrently and in overlapping sessions of mutual interest.
