

John Veinot, MD

APC Senior Fellow Since: 2022

Email: j.veinot@sympatico.ca

EDUCATION

Undergraduate Degree: Faculty of Science, Acadia University (1981-1984); B.Sc., University Scholar, Acadia University (1984). Graduate/Professional Degree: Faculty of Medicine, Dalhousie University (1984-1988); M.D. with distinction, Dalhousie University (1988). Postgraduate Education: Rotating Internship, University of Western Ontario, Victoria Hospital (1988-1989); Anatomical Pathology Residency, Queen's University (1989-1992); Fellowship Cardiovascular Pathology, Mayo Clinic

Graduate School of Medicine (1992-1993). Board Certification: National Board Exam Part I (June 1986); National Board Exam Part II (April 1988); National Board Exam Part III (April 1992); Licentiate Medical Council of Canada LMCC # 67854 (1989); Educational License, Province of Ontario (1988-1989); General License, Province of Ontario (1989-2022); Minnesota State License (1992-1993); American Board of Pathology, Anatomical Pathology (June 3, 1993); Fellow Royal College of Physicians Canada, Anatomical Pathology (June 30, 1993).

SERVICE

Service as Pathology Chair: Chairman, Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine, University of Ottawa (Sept 2010-2021); Director Pathology Core Laboratory, University of Ottawa; Department Heads, Departments of Pathology and Lab Medicine, The Ottawa Hospital and Children Hospital of Eastern Ontario; Chief of Staff, Eastern Ontario Regional Lab Organization (EORLA). Leadership Roles Before, During, and After Service as Chair: The Ottawa Hospital: Senior Management Committee, numerous Review and Search Committees, MAC; Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario: AFP Committee, MAC, numerous Search and Review Committees, Head Departmental Business Partnership, AFP; Ontario Association Pathology: Vice President and Councilor; Society for Cardiovascular Pathology: President, VP, Councilor, Education Committee; Eastern Ontario Regional Laboratory Association: Senior Management, Chief of Staff for Region (16 sites), numerous Search and Review Committees, Regional Chiefs of Staff/MAC Regional. Other Academic Positions After Service as Chair: Society for Cardiovascular Pathology: Education Committee.

AREAS OF PROFESSIONAL INTEREST

Research: Cardiac and Vascular Pathology, basic and translational. Clinical: Autopsy Pathology; Cardiac and Vascular Pathology; Surgical Pathology. Educational: Undergraduate, resident, fellow and allied health professional teaching. Mentoring: Undergraduate medical students' groups; Residents. Current Interests: Education; Cardiac and Vascular Pathology.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Honors and Awards: Governor-General's Medal (1981); Dean's List, Acadia University (1981-1984); Patterson Entrance Scholarship, Acadia University (1981-1984); Clark K. MacLeod Pre-Medical Scholarship, Acadia University (1982-1984); University Scholar, Acadia University (1984); National Science and Engineering Research Council Summer scholarship (1984); Dalhousie University Summer Medical Research Scholarship, sponsored by the Nova Scotia Lung Association (1985); Dalhousie University Summer Medical Research Scholarship (1986); Dalhousie University Scholarship for Academic Achievement (1986); Dr. John W. Merritt Prize for highest standing in Surgery in all four years (1988); Dr. John F. Black Prize for highest standing in Surgery (1988); M.D. with distinction, Dalhousie University (1988); Pathology and Laboratory Medicine Best Teacher Award - Dr. M. Orizaga Award (2000); Award for Excellence in Medical Education Teaching, University of Ottawa, Faculty of Medicine (2001); Excellence in Education Prize, University of Ottawa (2002); Award of Merit, Society for Cardiovascular Pathology (2006); USCAP Recognition Award (2009); Award of Merit, Society for Cardiovascular Pathology (2010); Nominated for COMPASS Award, Ottawa Hospital Award for living the hospital's values - respect, quality, working together, and compassion (2010); Pathology and Laboratory Medicine Best Teacher Award – Dr. M. Orizaga Award (2010); Faculty of Medicine Award in Education, Educator Award for Communicator Competence, Anglophone Stream, Faculty of Medicine, University of Ottawa (2014); Physician Leadership Award, The Ottawa Hospital (2016); Distinguished Achievement Award - Society for Cardiovascular Pathology (2023). Professional Achievements of Which You are Most Proud: Publications; Widespread educational activities; Living with and being resilient with a severe illness; Mentoring many successful trainees.

OUTSIDE INTERESTS

Hobbies: Reading; Cinema; Travel.